St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry Update

Many people work together to help feed the 180 people who visit the pantry each week. In March the students from the National Junior Honor Society of Long Branch Middle School collected hundreds of pairs of socks which were distributed- thank you. The Rotary Club of Greater Long Branch provided hams at Easter time- thank you.

The Long Branch Postmaster along with the National Association of Letter Carriers donated all the food they collected to our pantry- thank you. Nino's Bakery continues to provide rolls each week- thank you. Mr. Fuentes brings donations from Joe Leone's each Tuesday- thank you. Kayde McElroy stops at BJ's to collect lots of goodies each Tuesday- thank you. Tracy brings bagels donated from Hot Bagels Brooklyn's Finest- thank you.

Thank you to FineFare for delivering the food when it needs to be purchased. This week, a generous donation allowed us to buy laundry detergent. We are grateful for the Parish support, both food and financial.

None of this could happen without the army of volunteers who make it all possible EVERY Wednesday. The faithful regular volunteers are: Bruce, Diane, Domenica, Eileen, Donna, Tracy, Chris, Phil, Rick, Bob, Jesus, Luis, Ken, Carole, Karen, Rosalie, Vickie, Dolores, Debbie, Ana, Anna, Judy, Julia, Nick, Charlotte, Tommy, Jeanne, Noreen, Rae, Diane, Javi, Jeremy, Mary, and Charlie. There are a number of Long Branch High School students who also come in to help after school. Working together we are able to help many families.
