Knights of Columbus Council 335 in Long Branch has received the Star Council Award, the international organization's top honor for local councils. The award recognizes overall excellence in growing membership, promoting Knights of Columbus benefits, sponsoring Catholic faith-formation programs, and volunteering through service-oriented activities.

This year, Long Branch Council 335 donated more than $15,000 to support our communities. Its efforts benefited children through rosaries, back-to-school supplies, and basketball and soccer challenges; young adults in Maranatha; the sick through fundraisers; the hungry at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter; and our seminarians.

We also grew in faith through Advent and Lenten small-group Bible studies, the Our Lady of Lourdes pilgrimage, the Silver Rose pilgrimage, the Hallow app, and our monthly trilingual Rosary devotion. Wherever a need arose, we were there to help.

The Knights of Columbus is one of the world's leading fraternal and service organizations, with more than 2 million members in over 16,000 parish-based councils. To learn more, please visit kofc.org.

Membership is open to men 18 years of age or older who are practicing Catholics in union with the Holy See.
